

Rules for the Open Leuven 2023 chess tournament (9/11 - 12/11)

1) Games.

The matches are played according to the Rules for the Chess Game of FIDE, in the official English version (Handbook FIDE: EI Laws of Chess Update 01-01-2018), with the Dutch version as a translation published by the KNSB, edition 2018. In addition to articles 6.7.1 and 6.7.2, this tournament uses the following: a player loses the game if he appears on the chessboard more than an hour after the predetermined starting time of the session.

The playing tempo is 90 minutes with a 30 second increment from move 1.

If a game lasts longer than 4 hours 20 minutes in rounds 2, 4, 6 or 7, the referee will interrupt the game, give both players an extra 5 minutes on the clock, turn off the increment per move and allow the game to continue playing. Art. G.5 of the FIDE Rules apply.

Seven rounds are played. The games are passed on for FIDE ELO processing.

The classification is made according to the Swiss rules on Rating and the SWAR pairing program will be used for this. The player's rating is used to determine the playing strength in the following order:

1. FIDE rating, according to the most recent rating list (November 2023)

2. The last known National rating associated with the specified federation at FIDE

The pairing numbers are assigned to the players according to the list of participants formed by the determined rating in descending order, whereby the player with the highest rating is assigned pairing number # 1. Players without rating are placed in random order (determined by SWAR). The same mechanism of random order is also used if two or more players would have the same rating.

The starting time of the parties is set at 7.30 pm for Thursday; 1:00 pm and 6:30 pm for Friday; 1:00 pm and 6:30 pm Saturday; 9.30 am and 2.30 pm for Sunday.

Whoever wishes to withdraw from the tournament or who cannot be present for one or more rounds, must report this as soon as possible to the main arbitrator and this at the latest before the conclusion of the previous round or before the start of the tournament via chess@leuvencentraal.be. Anyone who is absent during a round without notice of absence is excluded from further participation in the tournament.

Only for the first 2 rounds is 1/2 point per round awarded, for a previously reported absence, provided that the organization is notified in advance; 1/2 point is not awarded for the other rounds.

- ⤴ If it is determined that a player nevertheless carries a mobile phone or other electronic means of communication during his party, without the permission of the arbitrator, he loses the party and the arbitrator determines the result of his opponent.
- ⤴ If it is determined that such a device is in a permitted place in the gaming room, but is not switched off, the playing owner loses the game and the arbitrator determines the result of his opponent.

All provisions of these regulations are subject to the interpretation of the chief arbitrator. The lead arbitrator has full authority with regard to unforeseen circumstances during the tournament. His decisions take effect immediately.
